

JUNIOR LEVEL

Vocabulary bank

Replace the highlighted words with words from the news article.

Nearly half of Hong Kong's young residents 1.depend on social media for news. A survey has found that this group of people is more 2.unhappy with the government compared with those who get their news from other 3.avenues. The latter group showed a higher level of trust about the 4.administration's work. An academic suggested that officials 5.amend their communication strategy with young people and engage them through the social media.

1. ____ 2. ____ 3. ____ 4. ____ 5. ____

ADVANCED LEVEL

A. Fill in the blanks

Please complete the table below:

Survey	Conducted by CUHK on Hong Kong young people's 1. _____ and 2. _____.
Findings	Nearly half of the respondents rely heavily on 3. _____ for news. Those who do so showed higher levels of 4. _____ and 5. _____ with the government than those who get their news from other sources.
Suggestion	Government officials should 6. _____ with youths via social media.

B. CRITICAL THINKING

1. Do you rely heavily on social media for news?
2. Do you read newspapers and other publications? Why or why not?
3. What are the most important qualities you would look for in news reports? Are accuracy and impartiality important to you?
4. What is the difference between news circulated by private users on the social media and those published by traditional media organisations?
5. Do you know how to avoid being duped by fake news?

[Answers]

Junior level

- 1.rely; 2.dissatisfied; 3.sources; 4.government's; 5.revise

News in Liberal Studies worksheet
09 January, 2017

Advanced level

A. Fill in the blanks

1.social media habits; 2.political participation levels; 3.social media; 4.distrust; 5.dissatisfaction;
6.communicate