

JUNIOR LEVEL

Multiple choice

Choose the best answer for the following questions.

1. When did China set up its first university for the aged?

- A. in the 1990s
- B. in the 1980s
- C. in the 1970s

2. Where was the first such institution set up?

- A. Jinan
- B. Shandong
- C. both of the above

3. How many elderly people are going to universities for seniors in the mainland now?

- A. 70,000
- B. 700,000
- C. 7,000,000

ADVANCED LEVEL

A. Fill in the blanks

Please complete the table below:

Issue	Adequacy of 1. _____ for the aged in China.
Current state	There are 60,000 such institutions with millions of 2. _____.
Shortage	-- Competition to enrol is fierce due to constraint of 3. _____. -- In some cases, elderly people have to 4. _____ trying to register.
Suggestion	5. _____ to invest on improving facilities and substance of education for the elderly.

News in Liberal Studies worksheet
16 May, 2017

B. CRITICAL THINKING

1. What is an ageing population?
2. Does Hong Kong have an ageing population?
3. What are the implications of an ageing population?
4. Have the needs of Hong Kong's senior citizens been met?
5. Should Hong Kong set up a university for the aged? Why or why not?

News in Liberal Studies worksheet
16 May, 2017

[Answers]

Junior level

1. B; 2. C; 3. C

Advanced level

A. Fill in the blanks

1. education institutions; 2. silver-haired students; 3. resources; 4. queue overnight; 5. private capital